

SPRING DAYTRIP: ART IN THE MUSEUMS/FORT WORTH

Enjoy the art in Fort Worth's Cultural Art District, lunch at Café Modern, coordination and commentary from art historian Dr Karen Pope

Saturday, April 28, 2018

AMON CARTER MUSEUM

Special exhibition:

"A New American Sculpture, 1914-1945: Lachaise, Laurent, Nadelman, and Zorach"

About 60 sculptures selected to explore the confluences of sources—from archaism and European avant-garde art to vernacular traditions and American popular culture—that informed these artists' novel contributions to the history of sculpture

KIMBELL ART MUSEUM

Special exhibition:

"From the Lands of Asia: The Myers Collection"

400 objects representing key periods in the history of the art of China, Japan, Tibet, Mongolia, Korea and Vietnam

MODERN ART MUSEUM OF FORT WORTH

Special exhibition:

"New Works by Ron Mueck"

The artist's figures are extraordinarily realistic, except in scale--always depicted much smaller or larger than life. This exhibition features a special project showcasing seven major sculptures created between 2008 and 2018, including a new piece debuting in Fort Worth
